This role will involve coming up with new initiatives for the school to adopt and working towards gaining the Eco Schools award. iLeaders will have the opportunity to work in a team to design projects, raise awareness and educate others about environmental problems within the school.

Lead Staff: Mr Boyd/Miss Rennie

iREADERS

Calling all readers! This exciting new role requires you to do what you love (reading) whilst also gaining valuable experience in fields of marketing, publicity and the arts. With new rules requiring students to read between lessons, we have been given the chance to persuade people of the benefits of this great hobby. You will need to come up with exciting new ways to get people reading the books and articles you love. This will include posters, announcements, broadcasts and reviews. Alongside other iReaders in your bubble, you will partake monthly in a recorded 'Bubble Book Club' which will be posted on IGS news. We are looking for creative, enthusiastic and charismatic students who have a passion for reading.

Lead Staff: Mrs Lowes & Mrs Midgley

COMMUNITY iLEADER

If you would like to get involved in the local community this could be a fantastic opportunity for you. Sessions will be regular or occasional depending on which option you choose. IGS is supporting some exciting ventures such as the Ilkley Playground Project and working with Mayfield View care home. We are looking for sociable people who are willing to give some time to talk, read, play board games or help out around a residential home. We are also looking for some pupils to help with maintaining Ilkley play park and to assist in the fundraising and marketing for new facilities. Other opportunities may be presented at various points throughout the year.

DUKE OF EDINBURGH AWARD

This opportunity is available for all Year 9 and Year 10 students. However, places are limited. You'll find yourself helping people or the community, getting fitter, developing skills and going on an expedition. You choose what you do in each section! Your programme can be full of activities and projects that get you buzzing. And along the way you'll pick up experiences, friends and talents that will stay with you for the rest of your life. You'll enjoy loads of new experiences, discover talents you never thought you had, challenge yourself and meet loads of people just like you.
Lead staff: Mrs Robson

IGS NEWS ILEADER

Open to those who have an interest in TV, writing, journalism and being creative. You will be working with students from all year groups, attending events in and out of school and helping to report on them. There are two sides to this opportunity: One side deals with the school website and what as Headline magazine, this will include writing posts on events you or others have attended, taking pictures (photography students may want to take this one), helping to proof read some of the younger students' work and generally helping with the running of the uploads. The other side is more TV based: We will be launching IGS TV which allows students to go to the events and report on them in the style of a news story this will include: interviewing, reporting, filming, pre-event script composing and footage editing. We are looking for students who want to take part and who also would like to oversee and help organise the younger students. This is an excellent opportunity to gain management, organisation and English/Media experience. The club will run every Wednesday lunch time and students will be expected to attend events in and out of school time (you will be able to choose which you attend).
Lead Staff: Miss Parmar

DRAMA CLUB ILEADER

We are looking for a creative leader who can work with us to plan Drama activities working in a range of styles and using some text. You will then take responsibility for leading the group via Teams. You will need to liaise with the Drama team about your ideas and plans. You will need to plan and lead a range of activities via Teams using the 'Rooms' function and consider how to organise performance opportunities.
Lead Staff: Ms Ramrattan

CREATIVE WRITING OFFICER

This exciting new role entails working alongside the English Department, looking for national/regional creative writing competitions and encouraging other students to take part. You would also oversee a creative writing column which will published in IGS news each month: you will choose a theme with each publication and edit entries. This role is ideally suited to someone who lives to write, is organised, self-assured and is capable to take on a mentoring role, helping others to enhance their own writing. You will gain vital skills in marketing, editing and publishing whilst continuing to improve your own writing craft.
Lead Staff: Mrs Midgley

DANCE ILEADER

We are looking for someone to run Dance Club which will be open to all students of all dancing ability. The successful applicant will choreograph dances in a range of styles and run the club. There will be the opportunity to get dances ready to perform at various events and showcases.
Lead staff: Miss Holgate

Remember:

- We see leadership potential in many of you
- This may be a great opportunity for you to really find yourself and develop skills you didn't realise you had
- It will be a positive aspect of any future application and reflect well on you later in life
- We are really looking forward to receiving your applications. Go for it!

Application forms are electronically completed and will be emailed out to you. The link can also be found in your Year Group Enrichment Folder on Showbie in the Leadership section. Further details are available from the lead members of staff.
