The background of the poster is a dark blue field filled with various abstract and artistic illustrations. In the top left, there are large, stylized purple and orange brushstrokes. In the top right, there's a palette with orange and white paint and several brushes. On the right side, there are white and orange geometric shapes, including a circle and a rectangle, with the word 'OWN' partially visible. In the bottom left, there's a colorful, swirling musical note. In the bottom right, there are two white theatrical masks (one smiling, one frowning) on a purple background. A white lightning bolt is on the left side, and a white triangle is on the right side. A white horizontal line is near the bottom center.
